

Building Individual Teaching Techniques and Skills (BITTS)

Building Individual Teaching Techniques and Skills (BITTS) is a series of small-group support sessions designed to increase the success of identified teachers in the areas of student discipline, classroom management, instructional effectiveness, personal organization and professionalism. The sessions are individualized and interactive.

Who can attend:

Any teacher interested in participating.

Topics Covered:

- Classroom Management
- Discipline Management
- Lesson Cycle
- Lesson Design
- Lesson Planning
- Lesson Implementation
- Learning Styles
- Organization and Professional Ethics

Days:

- 5 three-hour evening sessions (Flex start time between 3 p.m. and 7 p.m., call for more information)
- 3 Saturday sessions (9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.)

Total:

15 hours

Cost:

$250/teacher

Contact:

Region 4 Education Service Center
Human Resources Development Services
713.744.6856
Kurt Van Gilder (kvangilder@esc4.net)
Denise Bray (dbray@esc4.net)

Sign Up Today:

Just go to www.theansweris4.net and click on the "Professional Development" tab/button on the right hand side of the page. Next, click on "Search Offerings." Enter "BITTS." Select, "Building Individual Teaching Techniques and Skills (BITTS) Training."

Region 4 Education Service Center brings you Building Individual Teaching Techniques and Skills (BITTS), a series of small-group support sessions to improve instructional effectiveness.

Improve student discipline, classroom management, instructional effectiveness, personal organization and professionalism.