

Reflection

1. How did you feel about having to accommodate the needs of your guests at the last minute?
2. What were your feelings about those with different dietary needs?
3. What if no one ever considered the dietary needs of these people or they only got scraps?
4. If you knew about the dietary restrictions before the dinner party, what might you do differently?