Feel Better Fast Right Now

to Help Yourself*

1. Place your hand on your chest as shown.
2. Breathe slowly in and out, a few times.
3. Focus on your breath.
4. When calmer, start gently tapping about the problem or pain: "That was so scary," or, "This really hurts." Just one phrase.
5. Repeat tapping and breathing slowly, until you're more comfortable.
6. Now you can use your regular Tapping

to Help Another*

1. Show them hand on chest position.
2. Lead them in slow, gentle breathing.
3. When calmer, ask: "What's that like, now?"
4. Lift a simple phrase from their reply and reflect it back, while tapping: "That was scary," or, "That really hurt."
5. Repeat gentle tapping and breathing until they are more comfortable and less stressed.

 Always seek proper medical advice.
