Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment

In 2017, the Texas Education Agency (TEA) developed and disseminated our High-Quality Prekindergarten Self-Assessment (now known as the Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment) to support school districts and charter schools in their ongoing effort to evaluate and improve their early education programs. There is no requirement or expectation regarding the submission of evaluation scores back to the TEA.

Your survey suggestions helped us create new versions of the Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment for prekindergarten and for kindergarten. Both of the aforementioned program self-assessment tools, along with the new 1st and 2nd grade versions, will be posted online in fall 2020.

Research shows that children who attend high-quality early childhood programs obtain better outcomes and are better prepared for school and life. We hope this program evaluation tool will assist you as you analyze your program and plan for next steps in continuous quality improvement. The TEA Early Childhood Division is here to answer your questions, provide technical assistance, and help you to plan for your program. Please do not hesitate to contact us using the contact information on the last page of this program self-assessment tool. We will continue to ask for your feedback to assist us in ensuring that future iterations accurately reflect viewpoints from all over Texas.

Thanks for all that you do to help our youngest learners succeed!

Regards,

Jacque Porter
Statewide Director Early Childhood Education
The Texas Education Agency

Overview

The Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment was created to assist administrators in evaluating their early childhood programs and making program adjustments to meet the needs of all students.

What It Is

- A means of internal reflection and evaluation of current practices
- A voluntary method to identify areas of strength and opportunities for growth
- A process to measure the extent to which growth has occurred
- A tool to inform continuous improvement

What It Is Not

- A system of scoring, grading or labeling a program
- A tool used to publicly compare or judge prekindergarten programs
- A prekindergarten staff evaluation tool
- A means of comparing individual prekindergarten sites within a school district/charter

Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment Guide

A self-assessment guide is available to support local education agencies (LEAs) in utilizing the program evaluation tool. The guide provides definitions, explanations, resources, and other helpful information. The program self-assessment guide can be found on this TEA web page <https://tea.texas.gov/academics/early-childhood-education/high-quality-early-childhood-program-self-assessment>.

Instructions

The program self-assessment presents rubrics that outline indicators for three levels of quality for each strategy within each quality component. Complete the program evaluation tool by reading the indicators and selecting the indicator that best describes your program. Utilize the results from the tool to create a continuous improvement plan. A continuous improvement plan template is provided in the Early Childhood Program Self-Assessment Guide.

Step 1. Read the indicators at each level

Step 2. Circle the indicator that best describes your prekindergarten program

Example

Prekindergarten teachers in a school district send out weekly newsletters to inform families of the concepts and skills their child will be learning that week. The district has provided a template for teachers to use.

LEA provides guidance and supports to teachers to ensure that teachers communicate weekly about classroom activities and curricular goals through multiple modes of communication with families.

Step 3. Compile results using the chart on page 17

Step 4. Identify strengths, opportunities for growth, and next steps for continuous improvement on page 18

Step 5. Use results to create a continuous improvement plan (template is provided in the program self-assessment guide)

Access / Enrollment

Strategies	Developing	Proficient	Exemplary
Eligible 4-yr-olds	Fewer than 50% of eligible 4-year-olds in the community, including 4-year-old children with disabilities and English Learners, are enrolled in an LEA-provided or LEA-partnership prekindergarten program.	Between 50 and 75% of eligible 4-year-olds in the community, including 4-year-old children with disabilities and English Learners, are enrolled in an LEA-provided or LEA-partnership prekindergarten program.
